Sounds good Brandy—will send you an invite for 4/28 (Tuesday) as that sounds best.

Thank you!

Good morning, Sean!

I was involved with Bradford Island for a while, but then they switched the date of their standing calls/meetings to the same date as the PH Trustee Council meeting.

Next week is pretty full for me, but I might be able to do Friday afternoon. The following week would be better for me though, particularly on Tuesday.

Nice to hear from you!

Brandy

Hi Brandy, I was wondering if you would have time to discuss Bradford next week. I've got time Tuesday through Friday and I could send an invite for a time that works for you? If you'd like we could invite Courtney and Julie Weiss as well, or I could meet with them individually—I just want to make sure all interested Tribes are participating to the extent you are interested and/or I make sure to convey your interests as things go forward there.

Thank you & I hope things are going as well as they can during these challenging times.
